

14-YEAR-OLD GIRL, NOT BEING AFRAID, HAD ROBBER TAKEN

Magistrate Praises Her for Effecting Capture of Boy Burglar.

Fourteen-year-old Mary Berlinger of No. 276 Belmont avenue, Brooklyn, was praised by Magistrate Wilkin in the Children's Court today for the nerve and good sense she showed in causing the capture of a youthful burglar in her home. Mary was playing on the sidewalk in front of the house last night while her parents were at a moving picture show.

She observed that while she was out of the house the light in the parlor on the second floor had been lighted. The little girl tiptoed lightly up the steps, opened the front door and climbed to the second story.

Packing through the parlor door, she saw Abraham Hoshack, fifteen years old, of No. 27 Snedeker avenue, going through the contents of a chest-drawer. He had a big candle such as grown-up burglars use for a light.

Mary slipped downstairs to the basement and stood in the area until a man came along. She asked him to get a policeman without making a noise about it. Then she locked the basement door, which had been left unlocked, secured the front door and waited quietly for the coming of the policeman.

When Policeman Siems of the Miller avenue station arrived she explained the situation to him and let him in. Hoshack had by this time bundled up about $10 worth of clothing.

Justice Wilkin held the boy for examination after telling Mary that if most grown women were as capable in such a situation as herself the work of the police would be made much easier and more effective.
